

Oncology Massage

Medical Massage Services

Akua Two Hawk Woman R. Maat is a Certified Medical Massage Practitioner who has extensive training in Oncology massage. Whether you or someone you love is in active treatment, recently into recovery, or at end of life, be comforted in knowing that her formal training allows her to make clinical considerations and Massage modifications to your particular needs. Adaptations are made in regards to positioning, pressure, pace or site considerations related to concerns like medical devices, side effects of drug treatments, surgery or radiation, compromised lymph nodes or blood cell counts, and other concerns unique to your particular needs.